

THE PARTNERSHIP

Rickenbacker Global Logistics Park is a public/private partnership comprised of Columbus Regional Airport Authority (CRAA), Capitol Square, Ltd., and Duke Realty Corporation.

About Columbus Regional Airport Authority

The Columbus Regional Airport Authority is an independent entity responsible for the operation of three Central Ohio airports: Port Columbus International Airport (focus on commercial air service), Rickenbacker International Airport (emphasis on air cargo), and Bolton Field (a corporate and general aviation airport).

About Capitol Square, Ltd.

Capitol Square is the real estate investment subsidiary of The Dispatch Printing Company and is headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. The company maintains a diverse portfolio that includes a cross-section of property types with a geographic concentration in the Midwest. Capitol Square's investment strategy permits it to invest nationally with past investments spanning from the Southeast United States to as far as Hawaii. The company has successfully worked with national, regional and local developers to create investments and, since its formation in 1998, has developed in excess of six million square feet of office, industrial and retail properties, thousands of multi-family units and hundreds of acres of land.
